ALLERGEN INFORMATION SHEETS

The Allergen Information Sheets are provided by individual ACDS members as a voluntary contribution in _____ regarding the composition of allergen-containing substances, the products in which they may be found, and means by which they may be avoided. The Allergen Information Sheets have been received from sources believed to be reliable, but they have not been reviewed, edited, or approved by ACDS.

The information provided in the Allergen Information Sheets is not intended to be relied upon as medical or legal opinion, nor should it replace the considered judgment of a licensed professional with respect to particular patients, procedures, or practices. In addition, legal and medical standards can vary from one jurisdiction to another and are subject to change as new rules take effect and/or new information, materials, and methods become available. Thus, neither the ACDS nor individual contributors validate the accuracy or sufficiency of the information provided, nor do they make any warranty, guarantee, or other representation, express or implied, with respect to its fitness for any particular purpose.

ALLERGIC CONTACT DERMATITIS

Testing has shown that you have allergic contact dermatitis. This means that you are particularly sensitive to even extremely small amounts of these substances:
